MISSION STATEMENT

The Sydney College of Divinity is a leading Christian theological provider, offering high quality, accredited awards to equip people for effective professional and lay ministry in a rapidly changing environment.

The Sydney College of Divinity will

- provide high quality, accredited education in theology and related disciplines from undergraduate to postgraduate levels
- encourage theological scholarship and train future theological scholars
- prepare leaders and ministers, both ordained and non-ordained, who are well-qualified to build the Church
- contribute to the public discussion of issues of faith
- encourage a theologically literate membership of the Church.

The Member Institutions of the College commit themselves to sustain a teaching program of excellence in Higher Education, integrating best practice in adult teaching and learning with theological enterprise. They, in their turn, seek to foster self-directed and lifelong learning among their students. This extends to actively encouraging graduates to engage in further study and research, both within the College and in other institutions of higher learning.

OUR HISTORY

The Sydney College of Divinity, through its Member Institutions, has been training theologians and equipping persons for ministry since 1983. Today over 2,300 candidates are proceeding to SCD awards at our eight Member Institutions. The programs range from a diploma in Theology, through a variety of bachelor and masters coursework awards, to research degrees, including separate doctorates in Theology, Ministry and Philosophy. This is a far cry from the first graduation in 1985, where the original six Member Institutions produced just forty-one graduates, all male, and all taking the one single award (BTh). In contrast, the 2009 graduation saw 361 graduands and the total number of conferrals reach 3,924.

ACCREDITATION

The Sydney College of Divinity is recognised by the Commonwealth Government as a Higher Education Provider and has programs accredited and authorised not only in its home state of New South Wales, but also in Queensland, Victoria and Western Australia.

RESEARCH AT THE SYDNEY COLLEGE OF DIVINITY

The Sydney College of Divinity offers five research awards with research active supervisors listed on the Register of Supervisors. Applications for the Master of Arts (Honours), the Master of Theology (Honours), the Doctor of Ministry, Doctor of Philosophy and Doctor of Theology awards are processed through the Office of the Dean. Expressions of interest, questions and applications can be made to the Director (Research).

STUDY PATHS

Sydney College of Divinity courses and awards are organised in terms of the following two study paths.

PATH A: for those who begin their theological studies with an undergraduate theology award

Path A is structured around the Bachelor of Theology as one of the primary undergraduate awards in theology and is a basis for subsequent graduate study to the highest levels. The minimum entry requirement is tertiary matriculation. Students who complete the Bachelor of Theology may move on to the Bachelor of Theology (Honours) or the Master of Arts or the Master of Theology and hence to higher research degrees, the Master of Arts (Honours), the Master of Theology (Honours), the Doctor of Theology, the Doctor of Ministry and the Doctor of Philosophy.

a) Pre-degree Awards

- |                                      |  |
|--------------------------------------|--|
| Diploma of Theology:          | A 2 year full-time, 6 year part-time program of study in theology, biblical studies and related disciplines. This award is available in distance education mode.   |
| Diploma of Christian Studies: | A 1 year full-time, 3 year part-time program of study in theology, biblical studies and related disciplines. This is made up of Bachelor of Theology degree level units. This award is available in distance education mode. |

b) Undergraduate Degrees

- |  |  |
| Associate Degree of Christian Thought and Practice: | A 2 year full-time, 6 year part-time program of theological study with special focus on Christian Thought (biblical studies, theology, philosophy) and/or on Christian Practice (counselling, liturgical studies, missiology, pastoral theology and practice). This award is available in distance education mode. |
| Bachelor of Theology:                               | A 3 year full-time, 9 year part-time program leading to the primary undergraduate qualification in theology. The Bachelor of Theology is a comprehensive course  | combining both theological and ministerial studies. In order to ensure coherence of structure and sequencing of units, a student can only obtain the Bachelor of Theology by fulfilling the particular subject area and unit requirements of a Member Institution authorised to offer the award and in which the student is enrolled. This award is available in distance education mode.

Bachelor of Theology (Honours):

A 1 year full-time, 3 year part-time program for Sydney College of Divinity Bachelor of Theology graduates (or equivalent). The award provides opportunity for preparatory research as a stepping stone to research in theology at the highest level.

c) Postgraduate Degrees

Master of Arts:

A 1.5 year full-time, 4.5 year part-time program of studies taken from a designated list of both core and elective units. This award is available in distance education mode.

Master of Theology:

A 1.5 full-time, 4.5 year part-time program of graduate study in theology and related disciplines for candidates with the Bachelor of Theology or equivalent and who have achieved a level of attainment in an appropriate area/areas of study considered acceptable for the purpose of proceeding to the award. This award is available in distance education mode.

The research awards into which Path A articulates are the Master of Arts (Honours), the Master of Theology (Honours), Doctor of Theology, Doctor of Philosophy, and Doctor of Ministry.

PATH B – Graduate programs for those who have completed a three year undergraduate award

Path B provides programs in theology and related disciplines for students who have already gained a three-year undergraduate degree in another field. Students may complete a variety of awards from Graduate Certificates up to the Master of Divinity, with various entry and exit points. Specialised awards are available in particular disciplines through the Master of Arts, which can also be taken as exit points from the Master of Divinity. The Graduate Certificate in Arts, the Graduate Diploma of Arts and the Master of Arts are “nested” in order to provide students with the opportunity to undertake theological subjects at graduate level with an option as to entry and exit points.

On completion of appropriate graduate studies a student may move on to either the research interdisciplinary awards, Master of Arts (Honours), Doctor of Philosophy, or in the case of the Master of Divinity on to the purely theological awards Master of Theology (Honours), Doctor of Theology and Doctor of Ministry.

Graduate Certificate in Arts: A 0.5 year full-time, 1.5 year part-time program of studies in which core units in theology and biblical studies, amounting to at least one-half of the program, introduce students to the central issues and methodologies of theology and biblical studies. This award is available in distance education mode.

Graduate Diploma of Arts: A 1 year full-time, 3 year part-time program of studies taken from a designated list of both core and elective units. This award is available in distance education mode.

Master of Arts: A 1.5 year full-time, 4.5 year part-time program of studies taken from a designated list of both core and elective units. This award is available in distance education mode.

Master of Divinity: A 3 year full-time, 9 year part-time graduate entry program for students undertaking initial theological studies. It is a comprehensive degree leading to graduate research study in theology at the highest level. This award is available in distance education mode.

The Master of Arts articulates into the Master of Arts (Honours) and the Doctor of Philosophy. The Master of Divinity articulates into the Master of Theology (Honours), Doctor of Theology, Doctor of Philosophy, and Doctor of Ministry.

POSTGRADUATE RESEARCH AWARDS

Master of Theology (Honours): A 1 to 2 year full-time, 6 year part-time program of graduate study in theology and related disciplines by research and the submission of a thesis for candidates with a Bachelor of Theology (Honours) or Master of Theology (at credit level or better with Research Essay or equivalent) or Master of Divinity at credit level of better or equivalent.

Master of Arts (Honours): A 1 to 2 year full-time, 6 year part-time program of graduate study in theologically related disciplines for candidates with an honours Bachelor degree (non-theological) or a Master of Arts (at credit level or better with Research Essay or equivalent).

Doctor of Theology: A 4 year full-time, 12 year part-time program of graduate study in theology and related disciplines by research and the submission of a thesis for candidates with an honours degree of Master of Theology (or equivalent) or a degree of Bachelor of Theology with Honours Class II (Division 1) or better.

Doctor of Ministry:

A 4 year full-time, 12 year part-time higher award by research and coursework for candidates with a four-year theological award or combination of awards (or equivalent), and at least four years full-time, or equivalent part-time, certified experience of ministry. The award provides for professional development in ministry at the highest academic level and thereby enables candidates to make a distinct contribution to the profession of ministry.

Doctor of Philosophy:

A 4 year full-time, 12 year part-time program of graduate study in theologically related disciplines by research and the submission of a thesis for candidates with a Master of Arts (Honours) or a four-year Bachelor (Honours) or equivalent, with results at Honours Class II (Division 1) or better.

THE BROKEN BAY INSTITUTE

The Broken Bay Institute (BBI), a Catholic theological institute that specialises in distance education, originated as the Centre for Christian Spirituality in 1973. Through its focus on open and distance learning and intensive programs it offers learning opportunities for adult Christians from a variety of backgrounds to reflect more deeply on their faith and be challenged by the riches of the Christian tradition. As well as catering for people in the greater Sydney area, BBI reaches out to students in regional, rural and remote areas, both in Australia and beyond.

In 1984 it became an Associate Member Institution of the Sydney College of Divinity and a Full Member Institution in 2001.

While continuing to offer courses from the SCD, in November 2009, BBI announced a new partnership with the University of Newcastle.

Students of the Benedictine Study and Arts Centre in London are enrolled with BBI in SCD degrees.

NAZARENE THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE

Nazarene Theological College (NTC) was established in 1953 by the Church of the Nazarene, an evangelical denomination in the Wesleyan tradition. It is one of fifty-nine tertiary level institutions worldwide operated by the church, serving both its own denomination and students from other Christian traditions. Its major focus is to prepare men and women for the challenges of Christian ministry (both ordained and lay) in Australia, New Zealand and throughout the world. Nazarene Theological College fosters within the students a passion to make a difference in the church and community through involvement in mission, discipleship and pastoral care. Students are prepared for Christian service through accredited undergraduate and postgraduate awards in theology and ministry.

NSW COLLEGE OF CLINICAL PASTORAL EDUCATION

The New South Wales College of Clinical Pastoral Education (NSWCCPE) began as the Council for Clinical Pastoral Education on July 1, 1963. Since then it has conducted various training courses for chaplains, clergy, theological students and other laypeople. By the late 1970s Clinical Pastoral Education courses were offered at Gladesville Hospital, Kenmore Hospital and Royal North Shore Hospital. While courses are no longer offered at Gladesville and Kenmore Hospitals the CPE movement in NSW has expanded to include CPE Centres at St. Vincent's Hospital, Canberra Hospital, Gosford Hospital, Sydney Adventist Hospital, The Lottie Stewart Hospital, Westmead Hospital and Rozelle. Courses are also conducted at Newcastle, Goulburn and Royal Prince Alfred Hospital.

The College teaches the Masters of Arts specialising in Chaplaincy and in Pastoral Supervision. These are an outworking of the history of the organisation.

Applicants for the Master of Arts with a specialisation in Pastoral Supervision will be required to have done Clinical Pastoral Education up to advanced level and meet the College's requirements for permission to act as a Level I Supervisor in Clinical Pastoral Education.

REGISTER OF SUPERVISORS

The members of the Register are eligible to supervise candidates in the research degrees of the College, or act as associate supervisors. A precondition for being a research supervisor or associate supervisor is that the academic is research active (see the draft document “Research Active in the SCD: Definition and Policy”).

Membership on the Register is a further recognition of quality performance in research, with members normally holding a doctorate.

The Register of Supervisors currently has the following members:

MEMORIAL GRANTS AND MEDALS

DIANNE FEENEY MEMORIAL

A grant and medal has been established by the Council of the Sydney College of Divinity. It is to be awarded each year to the candidate of the college who has gained the highest level of achievement in the Bachelor of Theology and who is proceeding to further theological study as a graduate student in the college.

The grant and medal is a memorial to honour the life and work of Dianne Feeney, who was a member of the teaching faculty in the Churches of Christ in NSW Theological College as an anthropologist and missiologist. She played a constructive part in the development of the Sydney College of Divinity until her tragic death in New Guinea on 28 November, 1985.

The award will be paid from a fund which was set up in 1987 with donations from some of her colleagues and from Member Institutions of the Sydney College of Divinity.

BETH BLACKALL MEMORIAL

Council in April 1997 established a fund from which a grant and medal would be awarded to the student presenting a thesis of excellence which was also the best at graduate level that year.

The Prize marks the contribution to the Sydney College of Divinity made by Dr Bettina (Beth) Blackall who died on 7 June, 1996. Dr Blackall's understanding of the processes of higher education was invaluable when advising on the development of an appropriate infrastructure for the Sydney College of Divinity. Her involvement with all of our Member Institutions and her sensitivity to their histories, their traditions and their confessional stances, reflected her ecumenical approach to theological education. The award is a mark of excellence, and is not always granted in a given year.

BRIAN MURRAY MEMORIAL

Through a generous donation received from the Marist Fathers a fund was established from which a grant and a medal would be awarded annually to the student with the highest level of achievement in the discipline of Theology who is graduating BTh.

The Prize marks the contribution of the Rev. Dr Brian Murray SM to theological education generally and to the Sydney College of Divinity in particular. Dr Murray was principal and lecturer at the Catholic Theological Union from 1975 until the end of 1982. During that time he played a significant role in the establishment of the Sydney College of Divinity (being a member of the initial working party) and was involved in the early submissions to the Higher Education Board. He later served as Superior to the Marist Fathers' General House in Rome, as Vicar Provincial for the Australian Province, and in parish ministry in Brisbane until his death on 8 September, 1994.

STUDENT ENTITLEMENTS AND SERVICES

AUSTUDY and FEE-HELP

Students should contact the Member Institution where they are enrolled to see whether they are eligible for Austudy, FEE-HELP and other Government schemes that may be of benefit.

AUSTUDY

Under the Commonwealth Government guidelines, Austudy is available for full-time theological students who are working towards accredited awards. "Full-time" is defined by the Government to involve at least  $\frac{3}{4}$  of a maximum load. Enquiries about eligibility for Austudy and making application should be directed to the closest Centrelink Office. Please note that:

1. It is the student's responsibility to keep Centrelink informed of any program changes or changes of address during each year (if the loading falls below full-time, then Centrelink may require repayment of Austudy received).
2. The Member Institution administration is required to complete regular reports for Centrelink on student progress and full-time/part-time status.
3. Centrelink requires a full-time load for each trimester, i.e. at least 18 credit points. Personal Formation 1 & 2 and Personal Formation 3 are divided across the number of trimesters appropriate for each of these subjects - they do not count as one full subject in a trimester for Centrelink calculations.

FEE-HELP

FEE-HELP is a Government financial loan scheme for students attending private colleges.

All enrolled students who are Australian citizens (or on Humanitarian Visas) have access to government loans for both undergraduate and post-graduate study. The loan amount available is up to $89,706 (2012, indexed 1 January) and can be used over the lifetime of the student at all levels of higher education accredited training. The loan can be used for a single subject or a number of subjects, or for a complete award or a number of awards - it is the student's choice. The repayment of the loan commences once a student's taxable income exceeds $47,195 (income year 2011-2012).

To access FEE-HELP, a students need to complete a Request for FEE-HELP Assistance form and submit it to his or her Member Institution before the trimester begins. The Member Institution then submits the required information on each student seeking FEE-HELP to enable the Government to issue a Commonwealth Higher Education Student Support Number (CHESSN) to each student. This number will stay with the student for the rest of his/her life.

TRANSPORT CONCESSIONS

Transport concessions are available to full time students, and are issued through the registry of the Member Institution in which a student is enrolled.
