

INFORMATION SHEET FOR OVERSEAS STUDENTS SEEKING ADMISSION TO COURSES OF THE
SYDNEY COLLEGE OF DIVINITY

The Sydney College of Divinity (SCD) is recognised by the Commonwealth Government as a Higher Education Provider, offering state accredited higher education courses in theology and ministry. The College was established in 1983. It is an ecumenical consortium of some 2,000 students enrolled in nine Member Institutions approved to teach the awards of the College on its behalf. These awards range from two-year diplomas, three-year undergraduate degrees and course work masters degrees to masters and doctoral research degrees.

The College is the legal entity that offers the courses and is responsible for all regulations relating to the courses of study that it owns. All of its awards are accredited by the New South Wales Department of Education and Training. Many of its awards have also been accredited in Queensland, Tasmania, Victoria, Western Australia and South Australia.

The College has a centrally devised and managed curriculum and a quality assurance process that is applied across the whole network of member institutes. The day-to-day education system is managed by the Dean from the College office in Sydney. The Academic Board and its Committees share this responsibility. The Academic Board oversees policy, regulation, review of units, and course structure for research, coursework and diploma awards.

The Academic Board and its committees are comprised mostly of principals or senior faculty members of member colleges. A number of senior university academics also sit on the Board and its committees to help ensure that the practice of the College (especially in the outcome of the consideration of research examiner's reports and general academic policy) remains in line with best practice in the university sector.

The College is governed by a Council. Its members are drawn from college stakeholders and members of the public.

The Sydney College of Divinity welcomes students from overseas to study at its member colleges which are authorized to accept international student enrolments.

The Sydney College of Divinity does not use agents to recruit and or administer overseas students.

In New South Wales and Queensland the SCD is the registered Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students (CRICOS) provider and the legal entity for all courses offered by member institutions in these states.

The CRICOS codes for these states are:

New South Wales: 02948J

Queensland: 02904K

In New South Wales the following member institutions are endorsed to enrol overseas students:

- Catholic Institute of Sydney
- Emmaus Bible College
- Salvation Army Booth College
- St. Andrews Greek Orthodox Theological College
- Sydney College of Divinity

In Queensland the following member institutions are endorsed to enrol overseas students:

- Nazarene Theological College

The following courses may be offered to overseas students:

COURSE	NSW	QLD
State Provider Codes	02948J	02904K
Diploma of Theology	063702D	062617J
Bachelor of Theology	063703C	062620C
Bachelor of Theology (Korean medium)	063705A
Bachelor of Theology (Honours)	063704B	065392G
Graduate Certificate of Arts	063706M	065391J
Graduate Diploma in Arts	063707K	062628F
Master of Arts	063708J	062629E
Master of Divinity	063710D	065394F
Master of Theology	063709G	065393G
Master of Arts (Honours)	063711C
Master of Theology (Honours)	063712B
Doctor of Ministry	063714M
Doctor of Philosophy	063715K
Doctor of Theology	063716J

1. Responsibilities of the SCD and its Member Institutes:

- a) The SCD (as the legal entity for all courses and the Provider) ensures that no fees for a course from an overseas student, or an intending overseas student, are accepted if the SCD has not given the student a copy of the following refund policy.

Sydney College of Divinity - Refund Policy

Introduction

The Sydney College of Divinity Refund Policy has been developed in accordance with Section 28 of the ESOS Act 2000.

A copy of this policy must be given to all intending and enrolling overseas students before any tuition fees are paid. The tuition fees are reviewed each year and the revised tuition fee implemented on 1st January each year.

Overseas students are required to pay their tuition fees up-front in full unless special arrangements have been made in writing.

Overseas students are required to maintain satisfactory course progress to complete the course within the expected duration, taking at least one unit that is not by distance or online learning in each compulsory study period.

In the event that an offer of a place is withdrawn by the College on the grounds that the original offer was made on the basis of incomplete or incorrect information supplied by the student, the college reserves the right to withhold 10% of the tuition fee paid for the first semester and to refund the balance

Refund if a Student defaults

A student may withdraw from a unit or course at any time in a semester during their course of study, however, the student needs to be aware of the consequences of such an action.

Students may withdraw from units without academic penalty only if notice of withdrawal is submitted in writing to the Registrar by 4.00 pm on the Census Date applicable to the unit in question.

If withdrawal occurs in writing up to 4.00 pm on the Census Date the tuition fee will be refunded in full, however a withdrawal fee will be charged to the student. A written request to the Registrar in the case of exceptional circumstances (see below) may waive the withdrawal fee. The refund will be paid to the student within four weeks of the date of withdrawal.

If a student withdraws after the Census Date of the unit in question, a Fail grade will be given and tuition fees will not be refunded. If there are exceptional circumstances around this withdrawal a written request needs to be sent to the Registrar seeking a refund and detailing the exceptional circumstances. A full or pro-rata refund may be made in such cases.

A written request for withdrawal due to exceptional circumstances may be accepted as grounds for a total or partial refund of fees subject to the student providing acceptable documentary evidence in support of their claim. Exceptional circumstances may include:

Inability to obtain a student visa

Illness or disability

Failure to meet English language requirements for admission

Death of the student or a close family member (parent, sibling, spouse, child)

Refund if the Provider defaults

The process for refunds if the registered provider defaults is outlined in the written agreement between the provider and the student, in line with the provisions of the ESOS Act 2000 and the ESOS Regulations 2001, and will be followed by the registered provider.

In the case of provider default, an overseas student will have the option to have refunded the total of course money paid, less the amount relating to provider expenses incurred for the student for the course before the day of default. The student may alternatively choose to accept an offer into a suitable alternative course, either arranged by the provider (at the provider's expense), or arranged by the tuition assurance scheme. If the student accepts the offer (in writing) into a course as arranged under these circumstances, the provider is relieved of its obligation to provide a refund.

Payment of Refund

In the case of Provider default, the refund owed to the student will be paid within two weeks after the default day. In the case of student default, the refund owed will be paid within four weeks after the default day.

The payment will be made in the same currency as the fees were originally paid.

The refund will normally be paid to the student. If the student wishes the refund to be paid to a third party (eg in the event that the fees were paid by another person) the student must provide a letter of authority signed by both the student and the receiving party and including account details of the receiver, enabling the provider to pay the other party.

If the student is offered an alternative place of study, any refund will be paid directly to the new institution accepting the student. Refunds in the form of transfer of fees to another institution will be made subject to the student presenting evidence of acceptance into that institution.

This policy, and the availability of complaints and appeals processes, does not remove the right of the student to take action under Australia's consumer protection laws.

b) The following information will be provided by member institutions approved to enrol overseas students to each overseas student prior to acceptance for enrolment in an SCD approved course.

- A general description of the content of the course
- The qualification gained on completion

- The duration of the course
- The teaching methods used
- The assessment methods used in the course
- Modes of study available
- A general description of the facilities, equipment, and learning resources available to students
- An accurate description of the local environment in which the member institute operates including location of the campus, indicative costs of living and accommodation options
- Where relevant, schooling obligations and options for school-age dependents accompanying the student to Australia, including advice that they must pay fees whether enrolled in a government or non-government school
- Details of any arrangements with other providers for recognition of the course or completed components of the course
- Indicative course fees including advice on the potential for fees to change during the student's course and applicable refunds
- Information about the minimum level of English language proficiency, educational qualifications and work experience required for the student to be accepted for the course.
- A copy of the SCD Grievance Procedures
- Advice that should an applicant wish to seek credit based on previous study or RPL towards the course for which they are applying, the application for credit needs to be lodged at the same time as the application for admission and, if credit is granted and reduces the period of study, this will be reflected in the offer letter and will be indicated either on the CoE issued for that student to commence the course, or reported on PRISMS.
- Information about the grounds on which the student's enrolment may be deferred, suspended or cancelled.
- A description of the ESOS framework made available electronically by DEST

c) Either prior to or concurrently with accepting course money from the student, the SCD will enter into a written agreement with the student, signed or otherwise accepted by that student. The written agreement will:

- Identify the course or courses in which the student is to be enrolled, and any conditions of enrolment
- Provide an itemized list of course money payable by the student
- Set out the circumstances in which the student's personal information may be shared between the provider and the Australian Government and designated authorities, and, if relevant, the Tuition Assurance Scheme and the ESOS Assurance Fund Manager.
- Advise the student of his or her obligation to notify the registered provider of a change of address while enrolled in the course.
- Include a copy of the SCD Refund Policy, outlining refund entitlements, processes and options in case of student or provider default, in keeping with the requirements of the ESOS Act.

d) The SCD will regularly monitor the enrolment load of students to ensure they complete the course within the duration specified in their CoE, and do not exceed the allowable portion of online or distance learning.

e) The SCD will monitor students' course progress at the end of every semester. An intervention strategy will be put in place for any student at risk of not meeting satisfactory course progress requirements, at a minimum when the student has failed 50% or more of the units attempted in any study period.

f) The SCD will contact the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (DIAC) if any overseas student is breaching the terms of their visa relating to course progress requirements.

2. Responsibilities of overseas students on a student visa:

a) An overseas student must maintain a sufficient study load throughout the course of study to ensure that at all times he or she is in a position to complete the course within the expected duration as specified on the student's CoE.

b) Students must be aware that any school-aged dependants accompanying them to Australia will be required to pay full fees if they are enrolled in either a government or non-government school.

c) Overseas students are not allowed to defer commencement of their studies, or suspend their studies, except on the grounds of illness, evidenced by a doctor's certificate, or other exceptional compassionate circumstances beyond the control of the student, for example, bereavement. If a student defers or suspends their studies on any other grounds, the SCD must report the student as not complying with visa conditions.

d) Overseas students have a duty to advise the SCD of any change in their contact details (i.e. Australian residential address and telephone number). If students do not keep their contact details up to date and the SCD has to send a notice informing that student of their failure to satisfy course requirements, this may result in automatic student visa cancellation without the knowledge of the student. Such cancellation may not be revoked if it has occurred where the student has failed to keep the SCD informed of their address.

e) Overseas students are responsible for arranging health insurance, and for maintaining the currency of that insurance each year. Details of the insurance policy should be provided to the relevant member institute at the time of application.

f) Before arranging a visa, overseas students must ensure that they have the financial resources available to cover their tuition and other related study costs such as accommodation, health insurance, living expenses, childcare, etc.

Regulations:

The information provided by overseas students to the provider (the Sydney College of Divinity) may be made available to Commonwealth and State agencies and the Fund Manager of the Educational Services for Overseas Students (ESOS) Assurance Fund, pursuant to obligations under the ESOS Act 2000 and the National Code; and the provider is required, under section 19 of the ESOS Act 2000, to tell the Department about: (i) certain changes to the student's enrolment; and (ii) any breach by the student of a student visa condition relating to satisfactory course progress.

Further information:

For details information on accommodation resources, the local environment of the campuses, and other details of campus life, students should refer to the web pages of those member institutes endorsed to enrol overseas students. These sites can be accessed through SCD website at www.scd.edu.au .